

Columbus Public Health

Health Equity Training Series

The Columbus Public Health Diversity & Equity Committee invites you to attend our upcoming health equity training series.

Each training will include a facilitated discussion led by staff from the Kirwan Institute for the Study of Race and Ethnicity. Please direct any questions to Malaika Brewer at 614-645-1345 or MABrewer@columbus.gov

Moving from Cultural Competency to Cultural Humility

Date: Wednesday, July 13, 2016 1pm – 3pm

Location: CPH Auditorium

Presenters: Kip Holley & Charles Noble, Kirwan Institute for Race and Ethnicity

This session will be focused on the value of moving beyond cultural competency and into cultural humility. Whereas the term cultural competency encompasses mandates, policies, standards, etc., cultural humility is a lifelong commitment to self-evaluation, self-critique, and developing beneficial and non-paternalistic relationships.

The Journey to CLAS (Culturally and Linguistically Appropriate Services)

Date: Wednesday, August 31, 2016 1pm – 3pm

Location: CPH Auditorium

Presenter: Jamoya Cox, Ohio Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services

- History of the Culturally and Linguistically Appropriate Services (CLAS) Standards
- CLAS Standards as a strategy to help eliminate health inequities
- Tailoring services/resources to meet the needs of a population's culture and/or language
- What are the positive health outcomes for diverse populations when we adhere to CLAS Standards?

Effectively Engaging Residents in the Communities We Serve

Date: Tuesday, September 20, 2016 10am – 12pm

Location: CPH Auditorium

Presenter: Dr. Melissa K. Thomas, Manager, Health Disparities Research Office of Health Equity - OhioHealth Research & Innovation Institute

Dr. Melissa Thomas's presentation will be centered on understanding the burden of disease and then sharing real world examples of implementing culturally competent programs. She will also share information about the role of the Office of Health Equity and how they can be a resource to CPH staff and community partner agencies.

Trauma Informed Care

Date: Thursday, October 6, 2016 10am – 12pm

Location: CPH Auditorium

Presenter: Kimberly Turner - Mt. Carmel Crime and Trauma Assistance Program

- The many forms in which trauma can occur (i.e. neighborhood violence, food insecurity, chronic poverty, housing insecurity, etc.)
- Impact of chronic stress
- Acute and chronic stress response
- Identifying and addressing implicit bias

REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED FOR ALL TRAININGS. You may register for one or more of the sessions listed above. Register online at <http://goo.gl/forms/2TwON1tVKGJCTp8A2>